Exhibit 50	Zimmerman Reed, LLP

In addition to the individual charts submitted on behalf of each of these 49 law firms, Exhibit 1 is an overall summary by category of the total common benefit time and expenses submitted by all 49 Kansas Common Benefit. While not intended to describe all time that falls within each category, the Notes columns in Exhibit 1 provide descriptions of the types of common benefit time and expenses these firms placed in each of the Court's categories. The full details on the scope of the work performed and expenses incurred by the Kansas Common Benefit firms are contained in the previously-filed declarations from each firm. See generally ECF No. 3587.

With regard to the MDL Common Benefit Expenses, the Kansas Common Benefit firms tracked their common benefit expenses using 19 Common Benefit Expense Codes. See Declaration of Patrick J. Stueve, ECF No. 3587-1 at 131-32 (¶ 645). These categories codes are similar to the Court's Codes and the Notes column in Exhibit 1 explains which types of expenses are included in each of the Court's categories, with the corresponding MDL Common Benefit Expense Code. In the Court's Miscellaneous category, Kansas Common Benefit firms placed expenses that did not fit into one of the Court's other categories, including legal research, long distance and conference calls, service of process and small travel expenses.

Finally, throughout the litigation, MDL Co-Lead Counsel did not ask or require Kansas Common Benefit firms to track or submit time and/or expenses that fall outside of the Common Benefit Order, ECF No. 936. Moreover, MDL Co-Lead Counsel did not ask or require any Referring Counsel for any of the Kansas Common Benefit firms, including the Co-Lead Counsel firms, to track or submit time and/or expenses that fall outside of the Common Benefit Order.

In their Petition to the Court, MDL Co-Lead Counsel stated: "Importantly, Co-Lead Counsel excluded nearly $8 million of their own time and over $500,000 of out-of-pocket expenses because they did not meet the definition of common-benefit work or expenses in the CBO, including substantial hours expended on their many individual clients, representing approximately 22,700 hours.” ECF No. 3587 at 52 n.14. To provide context for the extensive amount of non-common benefit time and expenses excluded by just the four Co-Lead Counsel law firms, Co-Lead Counsel have provided their categorized non-common benefit time in the “Other Work” columns of the fee chart and added a column entitled “Non-Common Benefit Amount” on the expense chart detailing the non-common benefit expenses. The non-common benefit time and expenses from the Co-Lead Counsel only are contained in the summary chart attached as Exhibit 1 in the “Other Work (By MDL Co-Lead Counsel Only)” and “Non-Common Benefit Expense Amount (By MDL Co-Lead Counsel Only)” columns.

Again, MDL Co-Lead Counsel did not include this non-common benefit time and expenses as a basis for any relief sought in the Petition for Attorneys’ Fees. MDL Co-Lead Counsel believe these types of fees and expenses fall outside the definition of common-benefit work and expenses as defined in the Common Benefit Order.

Time spent by individual attorneys initially completing PFSs for other plaintiffs was not submitted pursuant to the Common Benefit Order. Approximately 75% of this time was spent by Co-Lead Counsel affirmatively reaching out to counsel for the thousands of cases transferred to the MDL to inform them of their PFS obligations, to track PFS deadlines for each plaintiff, to seek revisions to incomplete PFSs initially provided by individual counsel in the MDL and to serve nearly all PFSs and supplemental PFSs for the cases in the MDL. This additionally involved time spent creating and running the online portal through which individual counsel could upload information necessary for the PFSs and documents required by the PFSs. Once responsive documents were uploaded, Co-Lead Counsel added Bates labels and created load files consistent with the ESI Protocol for all responsive documents. This includes time spent drafting multiple sets of written discovery requests to Syngenta and analyzing those responses. This additionally includes time drafting subpoenas and discovery requests to third parties and negotiating the scope of these subpoenas with the third parties. Also included is time spent conducting the initial review and coding of all documents produced by Syngenta and third parties.
